Dear John:

Since I wrote to you on 14 February about [redacted] I have been advised that there is no opening at the present time or in the immediate future for a man of his impressive background. Our legal staff is quite small and there is relatively little turnover there. I find that we do expect a few vacancies over the next several months but these are for junior people and it appears unlikely that anything will develop in the legal field for a man of his stature.

STAT

STAT In view of Mr. [redacted] executive background, we have also considered the possibilities of an opening of a more general nature which would take advantage of his managerial talents. Here again we concluded that there was not a suitable vacancy. However, I appreciated your taking the time to write to me about him and can assure you that we will keep him in mind in the event an appropriate position becomes available.

With my best wishes,

Sincerely,

(Signed) JOHN A. McCONE
